Help where it's needed most By giving to WHH Charity's Making a Difference appeal, you're directly supporting patients, families and staff.

From meals for parents to cancer support, facility upgrades and staff wellbeing, every gift makes a real impact at Warrington and Halton Teaching Hospitals.

and LinkedIn for the latest updates

Local nursing home donation boosts hospital experience for ## patients living with dementia A heartwarming donation has helped to provide support and moments of joy to patients on the Forget Me Not Unit, Warrington Hospital's dedicated dementia ward. The Old Rectory Nursing Home in Grappenhall sensory items – including jigsaws, colouring books, memory aids and reminiscence games to support the units specialist care. The thoughtful gifts will help calm, engage and bring comfort to patients during their stay. Emily Thompson, activities co-ordinator on the unit, said: "This meaningful gesture will make a real difference to our patients. We're donated almost £2,000 worth of activity and so grateful to The Old Rectory for their kindness and support." Read the full story on our website.

New multi faith cabinets enhance spiritual care

need.

Funded by WHH Charity and crafted by the Benchmark team at Greater Manchester Mental Hospitals (WHH), offering comfort and support to people of all faiths during times of

New multi faith cabinets are now in place at Warrington and Halton Teaching are stocked with meaningful items such as holy texts, prayer cards and faith information to provide round-the-clock access to spiritual resources. Paul Klein, Chaplain at WHH, said: "These cabinets are more than just storage – they're a sign that every person's beliefs are valued. Whether seeking prayer,

Health NHS Foundation Trust, the oak cabinets

information or quiet reflection, support is now right at people's fingertips."

WHH consultant takes fundraising to new heights An Ear, Nose and Throat Consultant at Warrington and Halton Teaching Hospitals

Read the full story on our website.

Dr Solomon Pudi travelled to Tanzania in August for a seven-day trek up Mount has taken on Africa's highest peak – all in aid of WHH Charity.

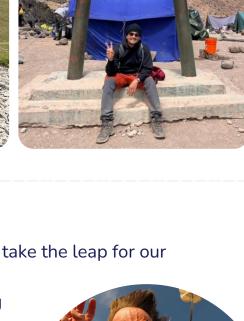

Kilimanjaro, standing at an incredible 5,895 metres. The climb tested both his physical and mental strength, but Solomon says his motivation comes from a deep

The funds raised will help WHH Charity go above and beyond NHS provision to enhance patient care, improve hospital facilities and support families during their most difficult times. And now he's conquered Kilimanjaro, Solomon isn't stopping there. He'll be back on home turf to join hundreds of runners at the Warrington Running Festival on Sunday 21 September. To support Solomon, visit his JustGiving page.

desire to give back to the community he serves.

The skydive was originally planned for Saturday 30 August, but due to the weather it's now been rescheduled for Saturday 4 October.

loss of a baby.

Charity T-shirt.

You can cheer them on by donating through our Support JustGiving page and sending messages of encouragement using #Skydive. Together, amazing we're making a lasting difference.

discounted entry fee of £15.60 (half the standard £30) for those who pledge to raise a minimum of £200. All participants will also receive a free WHH aiming for a chip-timed personal best.

Last chance to join the Warrington Running Festival This is your final opportunity to secure a place in the Warrington Running Festival 2025 in support of WHH Charity. As a Gold partner, we are offering an exclusive

The route offers a flat, fast, closed-road course through Warrington town centre, starting and finishing at the Town Hall's iconic Golden Gates – perfect for anyone

Get involved

skydivers

Sign up today! Fundraise for our appeals

• Willow Tree Hub Appeal – help us reach our £200,000 target to create a dedicated, supportive hub for families navigating the heartbreak of baby loss. • Ophthalmology Sensory Garden – contribute towards a bespoke outdoor sensory garden at Warrington Hospital, designed to provide a calm and welcoming environment for patients, families and staff.

Our community of crafters continue to play a vital role in supporting WHH Charity,

Fundraise for us

Join our crafting community donating thousands of handmade items every year.

organise a collection, or create a tribute page to share memories, photos and donations. You may also choose to leave a gift in your will. Every contribution helps us care for patients, families and staff – today and in the future.

Make a lasting difference

How you can help

and events to volunteering. Every contribution is truly appreciated.

There are many ways to show your support - from fundraising

Get involved

make a difference

Make a donation,

